

RON PAUL, RON PAUL!

Start spreading the news,
It's time for a change.
We'll make a brand new start of it, Ron Paul, Ron Paul.

It's your right to choose,
it's the American way,
the Constitutional heart of it, Ron Paul, Ron Paul.

I want to wake up in a country that doesn't sleep.
To fight for our Civil Rights and Liberty!

These little man blues are melting away.
We'll make a brand new start of it, Ron Paul, Ron Paul.

If we all lend a hand and stand up with this man.
It's up to us to vote Ron Paul!

Ron Paul, Ron Paul.
I want to wake up in a country that's truly free,
to find our President Paul, in the White House,
Capitol Hill, President Paul!

These neocon blues are melting away.
We'll make a brand new start of it, Vote Ron Paul.

And... let's show we care and shout it everywhere!
It's up to us, To Vote Ron Paul!
